

EVERYDAY CIRCUS

Press Release „Golden“ - English

Every Circus are back. And they've brought „Golden“, an incandescent massif of feel good vibes. „Golden“ will be available digitally everywhere at August 18, 2017.

2016 was a good year for Everyday Circus. Their debut „Mirrors“ saw the light of day, they played two tours on their own throughout Europe and were invited to their first UK Tour by Tracer. How's 2017 gonna look like?

The answer was given by the songs. They were casually writing towards album Nr. 2 and suddenly there were these three pieces. Without having been planned, they told one story. The big picture. Do they build an album around it or do they set it free? Withdraw themselves or keep at it?

Song by song is the design for 2017 and thus „Golden“ comes as the beginning of a trilogy. „For us, the most important thing is to stay optimistic. It's a never-ending struggle. In your immediate environment and on the rest of the planet there's much going awry. Nevertheless, we always try to push back. That's what ‚Golden‘ is all about“, says lead singer Matteo Schwanengel.
